Background

Since 2008, Hospital Authority (HA) devotes to provide 3-year Higher Diploma in Nursing Programme in School of General Nursing of Caritas Medical Centre, Queen Elizabeth Hospital and Tuen Mun Hospital. In view of the changes in healthcare environment, care delivery and models, nursing practices and role of nurses are evolving and growing. To enable our graduates to attain a higher level of analytic, critical appraisal and self-enhancement skills, HA upgrades the existing pre-registration nursing programme to a 4-year full time Professional Diploma in Nursing Programme starting from September 2021 to meet the society needs.

Overview of the Programme

- 👤 4-year Full-time Programme (total 145 credits)
- 📖 Theoretic input: 30 core subjects, including 19 Nursing Arts and Sciences subjects, 5 Generic subjects, 4 Basic and Applied Sciences subjects, 2 Behavioural and Social Sciences subjects
- ⚙️ Medium of instruction: English, supplemented with Cantonese (unless stated otherwise)
- 🔍 Clinical practicum: not less than 1,400 hours clinical practices in HA hospitals and clinics
- 📊 Qualifications Framework Level 5 with 680 QF Credits
- 💰 Tuition fee (total 4 years): $131,800

Collaborative Nursing Programme

Professional Diploma in Nursing (PDN)

- 4-year full-time Programme
- To be awarded by Hospital Authority (HA)
- HA contributes teaching for Nursing subjects and extensive healthcare professional team, provides clinical practicum for students in HA hospitals and clinics
